Correction Revival of Saturday Evening Post

This column, as you know, is turned over to other editors on Saturday, but there was an embarrassing omission last Saturday, Dec. 18.

The column heading was correct enough: "With Other Editors"—but the source of "Christmas Editorial" was omitted.

Actually it was written by Loyal Phillips, famous East Coast newspaperman, who for many years has distributed his annual offering to the membership of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association, to which The Star belongs. This was one of the many reprints we pick up from SNPA bulletins—always with credit to the newspaper or personality which originated it.

Last Saturday's Christmas message had an introductory note explaining Phillips' annual message, but unfortunately our shop failed to include the editorial note preceding the article. And the error got by me when checking proof Saturday morning.

My apologies.

It was announced in trade news nearly a year ago that the remnants of Curtis Publishing Co., including the title of the defunct Saturday Evening Post, had been sold to a group in Indianapolis, Ind.—and that the famous old magazine would be revived as a quarterly. Then publication began, and only last week was I able to obtain a copy. And it wasn't the first issue either.

The new Saturday Evening Post began with a Summer issue, then a Fall edition—and the one I got hold of was the third, or Winter edition.

It's a fine book believe me: 182 pages in the old-time Post format, and with all the old-time family flavor for which the original Post was famous before desperate men, fighting bankruptcy, plunged into typographical and content innovations that brought on sure death. At one time the Post controlled one-third of all general magazine advertising in America. Its death was charged to the fact that television took away its advertising—but other publishers laid much of the blame to the heirs of the Curtis founder who continued to draw dividends even when the magazine's accumulated losses mounted to 60 million dollars.

That is, the family management used up the cash at a time when the publishing house needed to diversify. For instance, as I recall, the Post originated 28 per cent of all magazine fiction, and was in a prime position to dominate a large sector of television with its own producing units. Instead, the cash resources of the largest magazine in the world were frittered away in dividends.

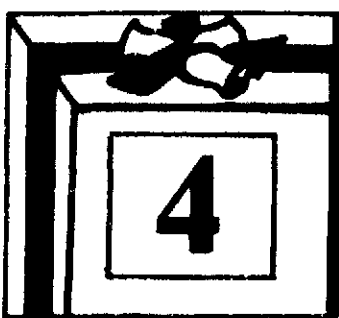

The new Post is identical to the old original except that it is datelined Indianapolis instead of Philadelphia.

And judging from the advertising volume in this, the third quarterly issue, it is on the way back to fame and fortune. I wish it well—even at $1 a copy.

January Tax Cuts Good for Public

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuts in federal income taxes that take effect Jan. 1 will put more cash into the pockets of most Americans.

Families with just one wage earner will benefit the most, but there's good news for almost all taxpayers.

Some of the decrease in federal deductions from paychecks may be offset by higher state and local taxes. There's also an increase in the income lid for Social Security taxes, though the 5.2 per cent rate of deduction probably will remain the same.

The ceiling goes from $7,000 this year to $9,000 in 1972, meaning deductions will continue for a longer time next year.

But the changes in federal tax exemptions and allowances should boost American spending power to levels never seen before, according to Internal Revenue Service officials.

A generous 92nd Congress has sped up the impact of tax-reform laws passed in 1969 and raised the standard exemption for individuals and their dependents from $675 in 1971 to $750 in 1972. That means the IRS will count on bigger personal exemptions next year and so will take out a smaller chunk of each paycheck.

Then there's the standard deduction for taxpayers who choose to claim an estimate of items like medical expenses, moving costs and local and state taxes, rather than taking the trouble to figure them out item by item.

Next year's standard deduction will be 15 per cent or $2,000, whichever is lower, compared with 13 per cent or $1,500 this year.

Poor people also get a break. The government is in the third stage of an effort to lift the federal tax burden from their backs. A special low-income standard deduction built into the tax tables goes up from $1,050 in 1971 to $1,300 in 1972.

IRS officials say there is a potential snag developing for married taxpayers with one wage earner in the house, because of an attempt to find a more equitable tax rate for single persons.

Generally speaking, taxpayers earning less than $30,000 will benefit from the higher exemption rates an IRS official said. It all varies, of course with whether he is married, single, has children, or a variety of sources of income.

Ruling Due on Rent Control, Insurance

Washington (AP) — The Price Commission hopes to rule this week on rent controls and insurance rate increases, two major fields in which no decisions have been handed down since the wage-price freeze gave way to Phase 2 of President Nixon's economic policy.

The Pay Board will review several aerospace labor contracts that will provide the first test of some tough-sounding new wage rules that would set a firm 7 per cent ceiling on raises even in special cases.

During the weekend Price Commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. said as many as half the nation's largest retailers and wholesalers may be violating the law if they've raised prices.

Grayson said he had asked the Internal Revenue Service to check on the firms to determine whether any of them have hiked their prices without permission.

He pointed out the Justice Department may seek court orders for price rollbacks if the firms are found in violation.

Under Price Commission rules, firms with more than $100 million in sales must seek commission approval before raising prices and must post the original prices.

Half of the 1,500 firms covered by the rule have not asked permission to raise prices, Grayson said.

He released a list Saturday of 148 retailers that have, including Sears, Roebuck and Co.; J.C. Penney Co., Inc.;

F.W. Woolworth Co.; Kroger; A&P; Food Fair; Giant Food, Inc.; Grand Union Co.; and Safeway Stores, Inc.

Missing were such well-known stores as Montgomery Ward, Macy's and Gimbels. Grayson said some firms might inadvertently have been left off the list.

Defeat Brings Resignation of President of Pakistan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan resigned today, and Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, West Pakistan's most powerful political leader, succeeded him as president and chief martial law administrator.

Yahya Khan resigned because of his army's defeat in the two-week war with India. His resignation ended 13 years of military rule in Pakistan, but the retention of martial law indicated that the army would continue to play a key role.

Bhutto was sworn in shortly after he returned from the United States, where he had argued Pakistan's case against India at the United Nations and conferred with President Nixon on Saturday. U.S. Ambassador Joseph S. Farland was in the large crowd that met him at the airport in Islamabad.

Bhutto said Sunday it was premature to speak of the future of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the political leader of Pakistan's now independent eastern province of Bangla Desh, who is a prisoner of the Pakistani government.

He told newsmen in Rome that President Nixon, at their meeting in Washington Saturday, had reaffirmed U.S. support for the principle of Pakistan's sovereignty and unity.

"Pakistan is one single thing," Bhutto said. "The nation's unity must be safeguarded. India has forcefully occupied Pakistani territories and a lasting peace cannot be achieved if New Delhi fails to give back what it conquered with its tanks. We do not want to be involved in a war every five or ten years."

Bhutto's leftist Pakistan People's party is the largest in the National Assembly, with 82 of the 138 seats allotted to West Pakistan. Sheikh Mujib's Awami League won 167 seats, all in East Pakistan, and that gave it a majority in the assembly, but Yahya Khan canceled most of the Awami victories when he ordered his army to crush the

Dollar Stronger in European Dealings

Money Markets Close

LONDON (AP) — The Europeans and the Japanese kept their foreign exchange markets closed today and watched the New York market for reaction to the world monetary shakeup. "Sanity will not return to the foreign exchange markets for at least a week and a half," said one London dealer.

Many governments delayed setting new rates for their currencies until they could gauge the effect of the dollar devaluation on world trade—and their own chances of benefiting or hurting from it.

The monetary agreement in Washington this weekend gave European businessmen the green light for stepping up an export drive held back by months of uncertainty. While criticizing some parts of the package, they hailed removal of the 10 per cent U.S. import surcharge.

Although Britain revalued the pound upward, the increase was not as much as Germany's and Japan's, and the British believed this gave them a chance to outsell these tough competitors. "Dollar Boost for Britain," one newspaper headlined.

However, all Europeans and the Japanese saw themselves at a trade disadvantage with the United States. The realignment of currencies should make U.S. goods an average 12 per cent cheaper in foreign markets.

When the European currency markets re-open, currencies will be allowed to fluctuate more widely above and below their new official rates with the dollar. Dealers expect them to open low as speculators holding marks, pounds, French francs and other European currencies take their profits by selling them at their new higher rates.

If the rates begin rising later, central banks in each country are expected to start buying to keep them down since lower rates are better for their exporters.

Bengalis Resort to Torture, Murder

DACCA (AP) — The jubilation of victory has given way to savagery as Dacca's Bengalis avenge their murdered relatives and comrades in blood.

The city's Bihari community, among whom the Pakistani military regime found most of its collaborators, is the target.

The Indian troops who occupied Dacca Thursday are trying to check the killings. But they cannot stop the stab in the dark and the back street reprisals.

Some 5,000 Bangla Desh guerrillas, armed with modern automatic weapons, race through the streets in crowded trucks and jeeps, dispensing their brand of justice to suspected traitors to their new nation.

They have plenty to avenge. Two days before the Pakistani surrender, 120 local intellectuals were rounded up and butchered. Many were tortured to death.

Their decomposing bodies, kicked over by crowds and feasted on by dogs, still lie scattered among water-logged clay pits on the outskirts of the city.

Hundreds go daily to the scene, taking their children with them.

They had a fresh body to gape at Sunday. A young man had been shot in the chest, and a big crowd watched his death throes. His arm had been twisted until it split, and his ankles slashed with knives.

People in the crowd claimed he was a Bengali killed by "Biharis, but that seemed unlikely. Mutilated bodies are a common sight in the streets. Everywhere there is a lust for blood.

A Bihari student who revealed the whereabouts of a mass grave was seized and bound. Only the appearance of an Indian patrol saved him from the mob.

Four bound men were bludgeoned and bayoneted to death Saturday at the end of a public meeting called to celebrate the victory over Pakistan.

U.S. Loses 4 Jets

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese antiaircraft defenses shot down four American Phantom fighter-bombers along the border with northern Laos, the U.S. Command announced Monday. It was North Vietnam's biggest success in the air war in more than three years.

Two of the eight crewmen aboard the F4 Phantoms were rescued in a massive search operation by scores of planes. The other six Americans are listed as missing.

LONDON (AP) — The American dollar strengthened in European currency dealings today as foreign exchange operators studied implications of the Washington accord ending four months of monetary and trade uncertainty.

American stocks improved sharply in the stock exchange and prices of Eurodollar bonds soared.

Foreign exchanges were closed in most countries but the dollar was strong in bank-to-bank dealings.

Matching improvement of the dollar, free gold weakened in bullion markets, reflecting the end of uncertainty with the realignment of currency values decided late Saturday in Washington by finance ministers of the Group of Ten richest non-Communist nations.

There was no official gold fixing in Frankfurt but trading was going on at the rate of $42.525 an ounce, down 1 1/4 cents an ounce from Friday's closing. In Zurich, it opened at $42.625, down 2 1/2 cents, and quickly dropped another 10 cents an ounce. In London, the price was fixed at $42.40, down 35 cents from Friday.

This was gold on sale to dentists, jewelers, industry and speculators. Monetary gold backing currencies is excluded from this market and is traded exclusively between state banks.

With the devaluation of the dollar decided in Washington, the new price for monetary gold is $38 an ounce, up $3 an ounce over the price prevailing since the last devaluation of the dollar in 1934.

The London foreign exchange was tightly shut and interbank dealings were forbidden. But American Express and other tourist agencies began exchanging dollars at the rate of $2.62 for one pound. Within an hour the pound declined to $2.6025. Tourist agencies were changing dollars Friday at the rate of $2.55 to one pound.

American Express said business was normal and all tourist needs were being satisfied.

Money markets were closed in Paris.

heavy rains and high winds hampered the search over the mountainous jungles 240 miles north of the demilitarized zone. The North Vietnamese had reported the downing of four planes earlier, but the U.S. Command delayed its admission of the losses because the search for the crews was still on.

ABC Suspends Liquor Permits

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The administrator of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Division says the permits of three Morrilton liquor stores have been suspended because of alleged violations of state liquor laws.

J. P. Brumbelow identified the stores as the Petit Jean Liquor Store and Robertson Brothers Drive-In, both owned by Earl and Elvis Robertson, and the Main Street Liquor Store, owned by L. M. Medlock.

Brumbelow said that effective Thursday the permit for the Petit Jean Liquor Store would be suspended 15 days and the permit for Robertson Brothers Drive-In suspended 10 days. He said suspensions of an additional 15 days against Petit Jean Liquor Store and an additional 20 days against Robertson Brothers Drive-In were held in abeyance in case additional complaints of violations are made while the stores are on six months probation.

Brumbelow said the permit of the Main Street Liquor Store was suspended for five days, but that all five days were held in abeyance during a 90-day probation period.

U.S. Bombers Hit Close to Hanoi

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — A U.S. fighter-bomber attacked anti-aircraft defenses within 90 miles of Hanoi Sunday in the closest strike to the North Vietnamese capital since the unsuccessful attempt to free Americans from the Son Tay prisoner of war camp more than a year ago.

The U.S. Command still refused to comment on Hanoi's claims that four American fighter-bombers were shot down over the weekend. But the command said an Air Force F105 fighter-bomber was supporting air operations over the northern part of Laos Sunday when its electronic equipment indicated that a radar site on the North Vietnamese side of the border was tracking his flight preparatory to firing a surface-to-air missile.

The pilot fired his missile first, and the command said the action caused the site to cease operating.

The command said the action took place within a mile of the Laotian border and 90 miles west-southwest of Hanoi. It was the 98th U.S. strike reported inside North Vietnam this year.

On the ground, Communist forces marked the 25th anniversary Sunday of the start of the Indochina war and the 11th anniversary today of the founding of the National Liberation Front with attacks in South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia.

North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao troops overran a Thai fire base on the Plain of Jars in the third day of a dry-season offensive in Laos. Two howitzers and two other artillery pieces were reported captured by the enemy.

It was the second allied position to fall in 24 hours.

Cambodian troops reportedly recaptured the key hill position of Phnom Baset, 14 miles northwest of Phnom Penh, without a fight. This raised speculation that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong may be withdrawing from positions threatening the Cambodian capital for more than a month.

The Cambodian command reported heavy fighting continuing at Peam Chhork, on the Tonle Sap River 46 miles north of Phnom Penh. A staging area, it was heavily attacked before dawn Sunday. A task force of gunboats was reported steaming north to reinforce the garrison.

Two Viet Cong rockets hit Saigon before dawn Monday crushing two houses but causing no casualties, and four rockets were fired into the big U.S.-South Vietnamese air base at Bien Hoa, 15 miles northeast of the capital. Again, no casualties were reported.

It was the first rocket attack on Saigon since South Vietnam's presidential election Oct. 3.

No Tax Exemption to Private Schools

By DON MCLEOD
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court affirmed today a decision banning federal tax-exempt status for private white schools set up to avoid public school desegregation.

The court made no comment in refusing to review a decision by a three-judge panel of the U.S. District Court here issued last June 30 and affirmed the lower court's decision.

The tax-exempt status was taken away initially by a preliminary injunction granted Jan. 30, 1970 to Negro public school children in Mississippi and their parent who charged exempting the private schools aided white efforts to skirt court-ordered integration.

The Negroes also claimed that private schools benefitting from the exemptions were draining away teachers as well as white students from the public schools their children attended.

Many Unhappy With Albert

By JOHN W. BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Carl Albert's performance in his first year on the job has disappointed members who hoped he would invigorate the age-stiffened legislative body.

But, although most of them feel Albert could have done more, their general attitude is that any rapid change was probably too much to expect.

Even one of Albert's strongest supporters, Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., who admires his ability and legislative skills, finds it necessary to qualify his year-end judgment.

"Given the circumstances," says Bolling, "he's done a good job."

The circumstances Bolling referred to also are the ones that led to the dashed hopes of those who expected more of Albert: the feudalistic system that leaves the speaker as the weak king surrounded by the powerful dukes who rule House committees.

Four to Run for AEA Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four persons have announced their candidacy for the office of president-elect of the Arkansas Education Association.

The president - elect of the AEA, which has about 20,000 members, automatically becomes president of the organization the following year.

The candidates are Mrs. Henrietta K. Holcomb of Fayetteville, Mrs. Dorothy Dalton Mansur of Magnet Cove, Jack A. Marrable of El Dorado and York W. Williams Jr. of Dermott.

The nomination primary for officers and members of the board of directors of the AEA to serve during 1972-73 will be held Jan. 3-7. Three at-large positions on the AEA Board of Directors and three district board positions will also be contested at that time.

New Monetary Agreement Should Help Employment

By JERRY BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The new set of monetary values agreed upon by the Group of Ten richest non-Communist nations should boost U.S. employment and make American products more competitive with foreign goods.

But it will have little immediate impact on the average consumer—unless he is planning to travel overseas or buy an imported car, camera or other expensive foreign-made items.

The new monetary rates, agreed upon Saturday night, center around a U.S. agreement to change the official price of gold from $35 an ounce to $38 an ounce.

The net effect will be to make U.S. goods cheaper overseas and most imports more expensive in the United States. That, in turn, is expected to spur U.S. business production and produce more jobs.

Chairman Donald Rumsfeld of the U.S. Cost of Living Council predicted Sunday that the change would create a half-million to 750,000 jobs in the United States.

Foreign cars, cameras and other items will cost noticeably more. And Americans traveling abroad will find that they will have to spend more or see less, since foreign currencies will cost more.

But there should be little over-all impact on U.S. living costs, since imports account for only 4 per cent of American purchases.

The U.S. devaluation amounts to 7.89 per cent in relation to other currencies, such as the British pound, which are not being revalued; or 8.57 per cent in relation to gold.

Some other countries in the Group of Ten are revaluing their currencies upward, making the change even more dramatic.

For example, the Japanese yen is being revalued upward 16.88 per cent in relation to the newly devalued dollar and the German mark will undergo a 13.57 per cent upward revaluation in relation to the devalued dollar.

This will be softened somewhat by the U.S. agreement to lift the 10-per-cent import surcharge imposed Aug. 15 by President Nixon.

Lifting the surcharge will have the effect of returning import duties to their pre-Aug. 15 levels from the current 10 per cent across-the-board charge on dutiable items.

The change in the "official" price of gold—the price the United States will pay in transactions with other countries—requires congressional approval, which cannot come until next month at the earliest, since Congress is not in session.

But the practical effects of the agreement on commercial or personal transactions will be more immediate, since those transactions are not directly tied to "official" currency values.

Good Weather to Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pleasant temperatures are expected to continue in Arkansas through Tuesday.

Highs today were expected to near 70 in the southern portion of the state. Readings in the 50s are forecast for the northern portion. El Dorado, which had a high of 58 Sunday, had already warmed to 59 at 4 a.m. today.

Highs Tuesday should be mostly in the 60s.

Lows tonight should range from the low 30s north to the low 40s in the south.

Overnight lows include Fayetteville 32, Harrison 40, Jonesboro 48, Pine Bluff 55, Texarkana 52, El Dorado 55, Memphis 51, Little Rock 46 and Fort Smith 34.

No precipitation is expected in the state through Tuesday.

Court Reverses Rape Conviction

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court today reversed the rape conviction of Daniel Montgomery Jr. of West Helena, whose death sentence was commuted to life in prison last Dec. 29 by then-Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Montgomery was convicted of first-degree rape and sentenced to death in Phillips County Circuit Court for an assault on an 18-year-old West Helena resident Oct. 17, 1969. He was among 15 death row inmates whose sentences were commuted by Rockefeller last year.

In reversing the conviction and sending the case back for retrial, the court upheld Montgomery's contention that officers conducted an unlawful search and seizure.

The court, in an opinion written by Justice George Rose Smith, said the affidavit for the search warrant did not contain affirmative allegations of fact from which the magistrate issuing the warrant could independently decide for himself whether there was probable cause for search. Smith wrote that such affirmative information is required.

The court said a pivotal question at the trial was Montgomery's identity and that the victim bolstered her identification of Montgomery by testifying that a butcher knife and a narrow-brimmed hat seized by the officers by means of the search warrant were similar to the knife held and the hat worn by the intruder.

The court rejected Montgomery's contention that he was deprived right to counsel at police lineup but said there were indications that the two lineups were "not conducted with complete fairness to the defendant."

Montgomery challenged the trial court's method of qualifying the juror in regard to veniremen's beliefs about capital punishment but Smith wrote that the Supreme Court found no error. Smith said the trial court followed U.S. Supreme Court's pronouncements in excusing for cause only those prospective jurors who said they could not in any event vote to impose the death penalty.

He said the U.S. Supreme Court had expressly disclaimed any intent to rule upon "the state's assertion of a right to exclude from the jury in a capital case those who say that they could never vote to impose the death penalty."

Calendar of Events

Tuesday, December 21
The Ann Wollerman Group of the First Baptist Church will meet Tuesday Night, December 21, at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. M.S. Bates, 1510 South Elm Street, for the annual Christmas Party. Lottie Moon Christmas Offering will be taken at this time.

The family of the late J.E. Hollis, are all invited to attend the Christmas homecoming in the home of Verdo Hollis, Tuesday night December 21 at 6:30 o'clock.

Monday, December 27
Blevins class of 1942 will have their class reunion at Blevins High School on Monday, December 27, at 6 p.m. All classmates and friends are invited. For reservations, send two dollars per person to Ralph Harris, Prescott, or call 887-2591. Please make reservations as soon as possible.

Union Xmas Supper
Local 1091 U.A.W. had their Christmas party Saturday night, December 18, at the Town and Country. Special Christmas carols were played and sung by Robert Young and James Turner.

Bridge Club Meets
A local Friday Bridge Club met for lunch at the Town and Country on December 17 before going to the home of Mrs. R. E. Cooper to play bridge at two tables. Pretty seasonal decorations were seen with Mrs. Cooper making use of poinsettias and mistletoe.

When play was concluded, high scorers were Mrs. R. E. Jackson and Mrs. Tom Kinser. The hostess served ambrosia, cookies and coffee.

Harding Group Meets
Mrs. Robert Levens was hostess for the Associated Women for Harding when they had a potluck Christmas dinner on Tuesday, December 14. Amidst colorful Christmas decorations a delicious meal was enjoyed by 14, including the president, Mrs. Harold Alexander.

Scouts Visit Nursing Home
Girl Scout Troop 282 visited all four local nursing homes on December 16 and sang carols for the patients. Seventeen girls with their leader, Mrs. Cecil Allen, assistant leaders, Mrs. Glenn Parks, Jr. and Mrs. Harold Foster, and also Mrs. Eddie Fry made the singing tour.

Afterwards, the Scouts went to the Little House in Fair Park for a Scouts Own ceremony using the theme Love and Goodwill. The leaders had gifts for the Scouts, and assorted "goodies" were served with spiced tea.

Golden Age Christmas Dinner
The Golden Age Club had Christmas dinner at the Douglas Building on December 16 and were entertained with two songs by Linda Crews and several carols by the Unity Singers. The Rev. Gordon Renshaw had a devotional message, and he and Edward Cooper joined the singers in some selections. The Rev. Renshaw also voiced a prayer.

Mrs. Myrtle Vaughn and Mrs. Alma Parnell arranged lovely decorations for the tables where 48 were served. The president, Mrs. Eva McKinney, dispensed with business matters except for roll call and reading of the minutes.

Mrs. H. W. McClellan won the door prize, and gifts were distributed to everyone.

Wesleyan Guild Dinner
Mrs. Robert O'Neal entertained Wesleyan Guild No. 2 of the First United Methodist Church with a dinner Wednesday evening, December 15.

The O'Neal home was decorated with Poinsettias and the traditional Christmas tree. After the delicious turkey dinner, a short business session was held during which members signed pledge cards and gave offering for the Methodist Children's Home. The members exchanged gifts during the fellowship hour, and Mrs. Joe Eason played Christmas carols for the group to sing.

Other than Guild members, there were three guests, Mrs. Harlan Zeigler of Crescent City, Calif., Mrs. Larry Stroud, and Miss Janice Russell.

Coming, Going

Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Zeigler, Crescent City, Calif., are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Neal.

Sydney McMath, Boston, Mass., arrived last Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Syd McMath during Christmas.

The Rev. and Mrs. Gaylon Decious and family will visit relatives in Iowa at Christmas.

Later this week the Rev. and Mrs. Norris Steele and family will go to Harlingen, Tex., for Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. John Whitwell and Mistry.

Shows Film on State

"Welcome to Arkansas," a colored film put out by the Soil Conservation Service, was shown by Monroe Samuel at the Hope Rotary Club luncheon meeting Friday, December 17, at the Town and Country in a program arranged for by Ray Lawrence. With recorded background music sung by Glen Campbell, the Land of Opportunity was shown in all its beauty, and then the sordid side of soil, water and air pollution was also pictured.

Mr. Samuel has been active in Soil Conservation work at the local level, state level, and national level. He enlightened everyone on the subject of Ecology and expressed the belief that we could look to a brighter tomorrow if we are more careful how we handle our natural environment today.

Club President Dr. Sam W. Strong welcomed the members and guests, the speaker, George Brown of the Soil Conservation Department, the Rev. Vernon Wickliffe, Grayson Spears, Jimmy Lester, and Sydney McMath of Boston, Mass. In a board meeting after the program, it was voted to give $250 to Operation Goodwill at Hope High. The next meeting will be December 31.

Television and Santa Helped by Jr. Auxiliary

NEW YORK (AP) — A writer's recollection of Christmas Eve in the Depression year 1933 became on Sunday night a warm and moving television story of family affection. Less a drama than an experience recalled with emotion and nostalgia, Earl Hamner Jr. adapted "The Homecoming," as the story of the Walton family—wife, seven children and their grandparents—awaiting the return of John Walton, husband and father, who had taken a job 50 miles away. The older members of the family heard a radio report that the bus he was expected to be on had an accident, with one person dead and many injured.

Patricia Neal played the mother with power and restraint, suggesting but never giving in to anxiety. Primarily the story was told through the oldest boy, John-Boy, in his response to the crisis. Richard Thomas was perfect as the sensitive boy growing into manhood. He obviously was Hamner recalling his close-knit and loving family.

Felder Cook directed the two hour film with close attention to detail—the family listening to "Fibber McGee and Molly" on the radio, the problems of living decently when little money was available. The winter scenes for the story, laid in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, were shot in Wyoming and gave the program much of its strength. It was a lovely preholiday program—sweet but never cloying and sparked by humor.

ABC's "Movie of the Week-end" Saturday was a merry, rowdy 90 minutes—a comedy suspense tale called "What's a Nice Girl Like You ...?" the sort of thing that if not handled adroitly could be a disaster.

Brenda Vaccaro played a Bronx working girl kidnaped by two gunmen who broke into her modest apartment. She escaped and ran to the police with her story, which was greeted with undisguised skepticism. Then followed successive and maladroit attempts by assorted characters to grab her as it became clear that she closely resembled a wealthy heiress.

The sprightly performance of Miss Vaccaro, backed by good comedians including Roddy McDowell and Vincent Price, gave the feature considerable charm and Howard Fast's script was loaded with bright, funny lines.

child by her marriage to Anthony Cox, a documentary film maker who has temporary custody of the child. The Lennons charged that since their arrival they had been unable to visit Kyoko.

The couple said that Cox has put up roadblocks every time they attempt to see her. "We got so desperate we're putting messages on records," said Lennon. "We've got a record out that's a Christmas song and on the beginning of it we say, 'Happy Christmas Kyoko.'"

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HER CUP RUNNETH OVER

Dear Helen:
I spend days making beautiful dresses for my granddaughter and love seeing her look pretty.

But after a trip to Sunday school, she comes home with a ruined dress. Why do Sunday school teachers feel children must have orangeade, grape juice—food or drink that permanently stains clothes? After all, they are only there for an hour or so, and they get food at home. —GRANDMA

Dear Grandma:
If you can't turn off the juice (after all, fruit drinks are good for kids) then how about sending along a plastic dress protector with your granddaughter? It would come in handy for other Sunday school activities too—youngsters no longer sit quietly and listen to Bible verses these days. They participate! —H.

Dear Helen:
Each time I read about another appropriation for some idiotic thing or some monumental mistake that has cost us taxpayers money, I think: if over half our congressmen and senators were women, I'll bet the country would not be running in the red. This goes for state and local government, too.

Women are budgeters. They like to get their money's worth, and they are sharp bargainers. They also, for the most part, see how ridiculous it is to throw good money after bad—and they wouldn't be so susceptible to lobbyists for they've had great experience in "seeing through" men's little con games.

If women would only start trusting other women, they could join forces and elect female candidates—for we surpass men in population as well as brains. Come on, gals, get political! And men, if you want your taxes lowered, vote for women! —LEAGUE MEMBER

Dear Member:
I'm all for more women in politics—but before we can vote for them, we must persuade them to run for office. Many won't—though they are highly qualified—because they're convinced a woman can't win that their own sex won't stand behind them.

Until we females learn to see each other as persons, not adversaries, we haven't got much chance at the polls.

...Pity!—H.

Dear Helen:
I'm the confused and frustrated wife of a man I recently learned is a homosexual.

He is a devoted father (we have three lovely children), a good provider, and appears very masculine in every way. I couldn't ask for a better husband—and I continue to love him—but, though he's tried psychiatry and prayer, and has continuing affection for me, he can't change.

He has tried to make me understand his feelings. He goes out once a week. All other times, he is a devoted family man.

When I first learned about it, we separated. Now we're back together, for I realize how much the children and I need him. They were devastated when he left—and of course they'll never know why. To them, he's the greatest Dad of all.

Presently, we're "just friends." My husband is very good to me. I know I could never

Satellites to Span Atlantic

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A new international communications satellite whizzed around the earth on a great elliptical path today as a ground station prepared to send a signal to lock it in a stationary orbit above the Atlantic Ocean.

The second in a series of Intelsat 4 satellites was launched from Cape Kennedy by an Atlas-Centaur rocket Sunday night and achieved a preliminary orbit ranging from about 350 to 22,300 miles high.

Later today, a ground station at Andover, Maine, sends a radio signal to fire a small on-board motor to kick the 3,094-pound payload into stationary orbit 22,300 miles above the equator.

There, it will join the first Intelsat 4 launched last January. They will serve as switchboards to relay telephone, television and other commercial communications signals between North and South America.

be happy with another man, for my whole life revolves around him and the children. I can't hate him. But can I continue to live this way? And am I the only wife in the world with this problem? —CONFUSED WIFE

Dear Wife:
More wives than you realize face this situation—and many, like you, stay with it—for the same reasons which brought you and your husband together again.

The question you may ask yourself is: "Can I live with my problem or will it eventually destroy me?" If the good in your life outweighs the misery, then perhaps you can—but only you can make the decision. —H.

ica and Western Europe. Each Intelsat 4 is capable of handling 6,000 simultaneous telephone calls or 12 color TV programs. A total of eight Intelsat 4 satellites are to be launched to form a global network to replace the Intelsat 3 payloads, which can handle only 1,200 phone circuits or four TV programs.

Golf Great Bobby Jones Dies at 69

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The sports world pays tribute today to Robert Tyre "Bobby" Jones, the golfing great who died Saturday at the age of 69.

Private services were scheduled this afternoon at Oakland Cemetery with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John D. Stapleton, who baptized Jones as a Catholic three days before he died, officiating.

"It's a great loss to golf," said Doug Sanders. "There never will be anyone to equal his accomplishments."

Billy Casper said, "He had such a good life and accomplished so many things that in passing through adversity he was a great inspiration to all who knew him."

Jones died "peacefully in his sleep," according to doctors who had been treating him for the aneurism that was the immediate cause of death.

He suffered from a painful back disease called spondylomyelia, which ended his golfing career in 1948.

Jones achieved golf's only Grand Slam in 1930, winning the U.S. Open, the U.S. Amateurs, the British Open and British Amateur.

That feat "will live forever in the minds of golfers and sportsmen everywhere," said Arnold Palmer.

Ben Hogan said of Jones, "The man was sick so long and he fought it so successfully that I think we have finally discovered the secret to Jones' success—it was the strength of his mind."

The Augusta National Golf Club in east Georgia had made Jones "president in perpetuity." Jones was principally responsible for establishing the club and its annual Masters Tournament.

Moody Is First at Moroccan Golf Tourney

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — A five-week vacation away from the golf course apparently was the tonic Orville Moody needed to revitalize his golf game.

The former Army sergeant led a seven-man American domination of the Moroccan International Golf Grand Prix, winning the $50,000 event by two strokes Sunday with a 72-hole total of 291.

Moody, the 1969 U.S. Open champion, had won only one tournament—the Hong Kong Open—until five weeks ago. Then, he decided he needed a vacation and went to his home at Lago Vista, Tex. for some hunting and fishing, before flying here to compete against a total of 24 American and European pros.

He flew back to the United States with $12,000 in first prize money. Moody, the only player to better par for the tourney, closed with a three-under-par 70 over the 7,501-yard Royal Rabat course.

Jerry Heard, the leader after the second and third rounds, bogeyed the last two holes and finished with a 76 for 293 and second place.

J.C. Snead was third at 294, one stroke ahead of Sam Snead, Lanny Wadkins and John Miller. Next was Billy Casper at 297, giving Americans the first seven places.

Sam Snead, nearing his 60th birthday, had the tourney's best round, a 69, on Sunday.

Arkansas, Vol Game All Set for 8 p.m. Tonight

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "Their defense is not just good, it's outstanding," said Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas on the eve of his Razorbacks' Liberty Bowl confrontation with ninth-ranked Tennessee tonight.

"I don't recall seeing a defense with so much speed all across the board," Broyles said. "They don't stay blocked long."

Tennessee's drive to a 9-2 season that included a smashing 31-11 victory over previously undefeated Penn State was keyed to a big-play defense led by All-America safety Bobby Majors and linebackers Jackie Walker and Ray Nettles, each packing All-Southeastern Conference credentials.

The battle between the rugged Vol defenders and the explosive Porker attack is slated for a 9 p.m. (EST) kickoff before a sellout crowd of 50,100 in Memorial Stadium and a national television audience (ABC).

Bookmakers have pegged the game as the closest of the post-season struggles, establishing Tennessee as a one-point favorite to extend its winning streak to seven games.

The 18th-ranked Razorbacks, runner-up in the Southwest Conference, will provide Tennessee one of its toughest tests this year.

Quarterback Joe Ferguson, one of the nation's leading passers, piled up more than 2,000 yards in the air while a trio of running backs tackled on another 1,000—Dicky Morton 831, Mike Saint 501 and Jon Richardson 483.

Tennessee experienced offensive problems early in the season but began to stabilize behind fourth unit quarterback Jim Maxwell, a senior who hasn't tasted defeat since taking command six games ago.

Aggies New Coach

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ Associated Press Sports Writer COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&M Board of Regents today named University of Texas assistant Emory Ballard to replace Gene Stallings as the Aggie head football coach and athletic director.

Ballard received a five-year contract but terms were not announced.

A&M President Jack K. Williams made the announcement and said, "We are indeed pleased to secure the services of such an outstanding man."

Ballard was offensive backfield coach at Texas.

"His coaching record in the Texas high school ranks and as a college assistant are excellent," Williams said.

"We know that he will be warmly welcomed to Aggieland by students, alumni and faculty."

Ballard said he was "thrilled" to accept the offer of heading A&M's athletic program and football staff.

"My primary tasks now are to organize a coaching staff and to get busy recruiting," Ballard said. "I'm sure the young athletes of Texas will understand why Texas A&M is a bit tardy in contacting them."

Ballard, who will assume his duties immediately, spent 15 seasons as a high school coach in Texas.

Stallings was fired after a disappointing 5-6 season although the Aggies won four of their last five games, losing to Cotton Bowl-bound Texas in the finale.

Stallings was relieved of all duties following the loss to Texas on Thanksgiving Day and finished his seven-year reign with a 27-45-1 record.

Ouachita Leads AIC After Win Over Henderson

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — With the exception of one game this week, Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball teams are taking time off the courts for the holidays.

Play is to resume January 3. The only game scheduled is Arkansas AM&N at Mississippi Valley Monday night.

The big game last week was the clash between Henderson and Ouachita, which put Ouachita out in front in the AIC. Last Monday Ouachita beat Henderson 53-30.

Ouachita is now 5-0 in conference action and 9-0 in the season. The loss was the first for Henderson. Henderson has a 3-1 conference record and is 8-1 for the season.

Svare to Stay on as Chargers' Head Coach

HOUSTON (AP) — Harland Svare is going to be head coach of the San Diego Chargers next year after all and apparently that's the way he wants it.

"I'm probably nuts," he said Sunday, shortly after it was announced he would return. "I love coaching. I always have and I just wanted to do it. I thought it was best for the team."

Bobcats Pick All-Opponent Team in District 4-AA

By BILL MOORE Star Sports Writer

Although a little late and already into basketball season, this is the Hope Bobcat all-opponent team for the 1971 season.

These players make up the best 22 football players that faced the Bobcats on the gridiron at their respective positions and best played against Hope's two units. Ashdown and Camden led the team with four players each while Magnolia, Nashville, and Arkadelphia each placed three on the squad.

Don Hubbard was picked as the coach-of-the-year based on his Magnolia Panthers' surprising 7AA championship team. The outstanding back against the Bobcats was Luther Guinn of Arkadelphia while the outstanding lineman went to Dwight Dixon of Arkadelphia. And now comes the team.

Those Lakers Just Keep on Rolling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS "When Wilt makes up his mind to go to the hoop," said Philadelphia Coach Jack Ramsay, "there's nobody who can stop him, just nobody."

Wilt Chamberlain, Los Angeles' massive 7-foot-1, 290-pound center, owner of the National Basketball Association's single-game scoring record with 100 points, had been a reluctant shooter in recent games, concentrating on rebounding and playing defense.

Sunday night, Wilt decided "to go to the hoop," and poured in 32 points as the rampaging Lakers extended their record winning streak to 25 games, overpowering Philadelphia 154-132.

Chamberlain, the league's leading rebounder, also found time to grab 34 rebounds, an NBA single-game high this season, and block 12 shots.

Meanwhile, Milwaukee won its ninth in a row, thrashing Baltimore 117-96. Portland edged Detroit 114-113, Atlanta defeated Cincinnati 101-99, Chicago bulldied Cleveland 119-101, and Seattle outlasted Phoenix 130-127 in overtime.

The 154 points equalled Los Angeles' all-time single-game point record as the Lakers boosted their season's record to an amazing 31-3.

"It's just remarkable how we are up for every game," said Los Angeles Coach Bill Sharman.

"When you get into a winning streak like they are," commented Philadelphia center Bob Rule, "you get the feeling nobody can beat you. It's contagious."

Gail Goodrich added 31 points for the Lakers and Jerry West had 27. Rule was high for the 76ers with 33.

Kareem Jabbar, the league's top scorer, pushed in 34 points as Milwaukee raised its record to 30-4 by beating Baltimore.

Sidney Wicks' 26 points and 17 rebounds and Dale Schlueter's two free throws with 19 seconds remaining helped Portland hold off Detroit despite 35 points by the Pistons' Jimmy Walker and 33 by Bob Lanier.

Chicago ended a three-game losing streak by trouncing Cleveland behind Bob Love's 36 points and Chet Walker's 26.

Four Going Into Hall of Fame

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four persons are to be inducted into the Arkansas Hall of Fame in a ceremony Jan. 21 at Hot Springs.

George Kell, president of the Hall of Fame, announced Saturday that Dave Hanner, Charles McClendon, Maurice Britt and Boyd Cypert, would be honored.

Hanner, a two-time All-Southwest Conference guard at the University of Arkansas, completed a 13-year career as a defensive tackle with the Green Bay Packers in 1964. He has served as a Green Bay assistant coach under Vince Lombardi, Phil Bengston and Dan Devine. Hanner was a three-time all-pro

Professor Is Giving Cage Lessons

By KEN RAPPOPORT Associated Press Sports Writer Watch closely, everyone, Professor Harry Litwak is giving basketball lessons.

You should have seen what the Temple coach taught fifth-ranked Penn Saturday night.

Litwak, master of the zone defense during his two decades at the Philadelphia school, unfurled a tricky twist to help the Owls upset the Quakers 57-52.

"We hoped it would shake them up a bit," said Litwak. "Maybe it did."

The setup is a throwback to the classic 3-2 zone, except that four men play the zone this time and leave the fifth to float around and play man-to-man.

In this case, Mike Jones shadowed Penn star Bob Morse and held him to a mere five points, about 15 under his season's average.

"This has to be a real, big win, a hell of an achievement," crowed Litwak after putting an end to Penn's regular-season winning streak of 48 games.

While Temple was confusing Penn in Philadelphia, there was also some confusion in Honolulu, where a technical foul added a bizarre element to basketball.

Ninth-ranked Florida State lost a 30-10 decision to the Hawaii Islanders after nine minutes of play when Seminole Coach Hugh Durham refused to leave the court after a technical foul.

After waiting two minutes for the hot-tempered coach to sit down, the referees awarded the decision to Hawaii on a forfeit.

Elsewhere, second-ranked Marquette ripped Fordham 87-68; third-ranked South Carolina nudged Virginia Tech 77-76 and No. 4 North Carolina won the Big Four Tournament with a 99-68 runaway over North Carolina State.

Brigham Young, No. 6, defeated Cincinnati 82-79 in a consolation game of the Jayhawk Classic. Southern California, tied for 10th with Ohio State, won the tourney with an 87-77 triumph over host Kansas. Seventh-ranked Kentucky whipped Princeton 96-82 to take the Kentucky Invitational. Marshall topped eighth-rated St. John's, N.Y. 110-107 in overtime to win the Marshall Memorial and Ohio State beat Butler 82-70.

The game in Hawaii turned into a real lulu, when a foul was called on Florida State's Otto Petty. He had said something to official David Mahukona, drawing a technical.

Coach Durham roared onto the court and he, too, was slapped with a technical. After placing his hands on the official's chest, he was ejected.

The foul shots were converted by Hawaii, and when Durham didn't leave, the officials called the forfeit.

In other action involving ranked teams, 12th-rated Indiana annihilated Notre Dame 94-29 and No. 14 Jacksonville stopped William & Mary 83-72.

The Indiana-Notre Dame score, despite appearances of a typographical error, was all too real for Fighting Irish Coach Dick Phelps.

"Has anybody been beaten like this?" he asked rhetorically. "We've got to regroup and reorganize. We've got to get over it. We have only one way to go now—and that's up. If we score 30 points the next game, well, that's progress."

Coach Bobby Knight of Indiana was almost embarrassed by the outcome.

"Nobody likes to beat anybody that badly," he said. "But selection.

McClendon has compiled a 727-4 record as head coach of LSU the past 10 years. McClendon, a native of Louisville, played at the University of Kentucky under Bear Bryant before serving as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Vanderbilt and LSU. McClendon's Tiger ended a 22-game Arkansas winning streak in the 1966 Cotton Bowl, 14-7.

Britt was a three-sport regular in high school at Loneoke and was an outstanding end at Arkansas in 1940. He played on season of pro football with the Detroit Lions before entering the Army two days before Pearl Harbor. Britt became the first Army man to receive the nation's three highest combat awards in a single war — the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Distinguished Service Cross and the Silver Star. Britt was elected lieutenant governor of Arkansas in 1966 and re-elected in 1968. He declined to seek office in 1970.

Cypert did important early groundwork for the Arkansas football program as business manager of the University of Arkansas athletics in 1933-41. He instituted advance ticket sales and coordinated efforts to build a stadium at Fayetteville.

Bengals Win Over Iowa State 28-8

By GREG MACALEESE Associated Press Sports Writer EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Bert Jones has had more success on television this year than Marcus Welby.

Put him in front of a camera and Jones becomes a precise surgeon—with defensive secondaries his patients.

In his last two appearances on national television this year, the Louisiana State junior quarterback has been devastating. He completed seven of nine passes for two touchdowns in leading LSU to a 28-8 victory over Notre Dame earlier this year.

But Jones' surgical techniques were at their best Saturday as he sliced open Iowa State's defensive secondary with three touchdown passes and ran for another in LSU's 33-15 victory over the Cyclones in El Paso's 37th annual Sun Bowl.

The 6-3, 200-pound Bayou Bengal signal caller completed 12 of 18 passes, including six of them to his cousin Andy Hamilton, to spoil Iowa State's debut in post-season football play.

Playing in a cold, steady drizzle, Jones broke open a tight defensive battle early in the second half.

With LSU leading 6-3 on a pair of first quarter field goals by Jay Michaelson, Jones hooked up with Hamilton on a 37-yard touchdown pass. Michaelson's extra point gave LSU a 13-3 lead with just two and one-half minutes gone in the second half.

Jones wasn't through. After an Iowa State fumble gave LSU good field position at the Bengal 39-yard line, Jones guided the Bengals 61 yards in eight plays, the last one a 21-yard scoring pass to junior end Gerald Keigley to make it 19-3.

Iowa State, hurt by four fumbles and two interceptions, caught fire late in the third quarter.

Cyclone quarterback Dean Carlson connected threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to fullback Larry Marquardt and then flipped a one-yard scoring toss to tight end Keith Kreple to narrow LSU's lead to 19-15.

But that was as close as Iowa State could get.

Jones found Michaelson cutting over the middle from six yards out for one touchdown, then slipped around his own left end to close out the scoring with a six-yard run.

It got to a position where everything Notre Dame did was wrong."

Notre Dame took a 5-4 advantage in the opening minutes, but the Fighting Irish never saw the lead after that. The Hoosiers had a ridiculous 44-13 halftime bulge and at one time during the lopsided affair, didn't allow Notre Dame to score a point for more than 13 minutes.

Brodie Gets 49ers Into the Playoff

By HERSCHEL NISSESON
Associated Press Sports Writer

A year ago, the Detroit Lions kept Los Angeles out of the National Football League playoffs by winning their final regular season game. This time they did it by losing.

The San Francisco 49ers edged the Lions 31-27 Sunday on John Brodie's 10-yard touchdown scramble with 10 minutes to play. That gave the 49ers the National Conference's Western Division crown and relegated the Rams, whose 23-14 triumph over Pittsburgh already was on the scoreboard, to another meaningless second-place finish.

Last season, the Rams beat the Giants in New York on the final day to stay alive, only to have the 49ers defeat Oakland and win the West while the Lions whipped Green Bay for the best second-place record in the NFC and the conference's wild card playoff spot.

Elsewhere, the Miami Dolphins trounced Green Bay 27-6 and won the AFC Eastern Division title by one-half game over Baltimore when the Colts bowed to New England 21-17. The Dallas Cowboys won the NFC Eastern crown Saturday by routing St. Louis 31-12.

The Super Bowl playoffs open next Saturday with Dallas at Minnesota and Miami at Kansas City. Sunday finds Baltimore at Cleveland and Washington at San Francisco.

Other results Sunday were Cleveland 20, Washington 13; Kansas City 22, Buffalo 9; Minnesota 27, Chicago 10; Atlanta 24, New Orleans 20; Oakland 21, Denver 13; New York Jets 35, Cincinnati 21; Philadelphia 41, New York Giants 28 and Houston 49, San Diego 33.

Brodie, who earlier threw scoring passes to Dick Witcher, Ken Willard and Gene Washington, pulled San Francisco from behind for the third time with his decisive gallop. He faded to pass, escaped two rushers and scrambled up the middle.

The 49ers took possession of the ball for their winning drive when Frank Nunley and Earl Edwards combined to stop Detroit's Greg Landry on fourth down when he tried to sneak for less than a yard at the Lions' 40.

Coach Joe Schmidt of the Lions admitted, "We would have played it differently" had Detroit been in position to make the playoffs. "We were going for the win. That's what we came here to do. I thought we had to play it that way to keep the momentum and maybe get in scoring position again."

The Rams, their backs squarely against the wall, scored the first three times they had the ball against Pittsburgh on a pair of David Ray field goals and Roman Gabriel's 20-yard pass to Jack Snow. But Gabriel said the players virtually had conceded the Western title to San Francisco.

"It was hard for us to play this game," he said. "I really don't think our team concentrated well at all. We all just thought San Francisco was not going to lose."

Miami, locked in a 6-6 struggle with Green Bay, exploded for three touchdowns within five minutes of the second half and then sat back to await New England's upset of Baltimore. The quick scores came on one-yard runs by Jim Kwik and Larry Csonka and Curtis Johnson's 47-yard spring with a blocked field goal attempt.

Green Bay's John Brockington ran for 73 yards to become the ground-gainingest rookie in NFL history with 1,105 yards.

"I'm sure the Colts played to win," said Miami Coach Don Shula, when asked how he felt about meeting 10-3-1 Kansas City in the opening round of the playoffs while runnerup Baltimore, the AFC's wild-card entry, goes against supposedly weaker 9-5 Cleveland.

Baltimore's Don McCafferty echoed that sentiment after New England's Jim Plunkett fired his second touchdown pass to Randy Vataha, this one an 88-yard bomb, to offset a late score by the Colts. John Outlaw ran 60 yards with an interception for the Patriots' other touchdown.

"You don't like to lose any time," McCafferty said.

Mike Howell's 66-yard interception return set up Bill Nelsen's tie-breaking four-yard pass to Chip Glass that boosted the Browns over the Redskins. Jan Stenerud's five field goals and Bobby Bell's 26-yard interception gave Kansas City its triumph over hapless Buffalo, which wound up with a 1-13 record.

Bob Lee passed to Bob Grim for two touchdowns to lead Minnesota over Chicago and Bob Berry's 22-yard pass to Ken Burrow with 34 seconds enabled Atlanta to turn back New Orleans for the Falcons' first winning season (7-6-1) ever.

Darley Lamonica's 67-yard pass to Raymond Chester started Oakland to its victory over Denver although Raider fans booed their quarterback throughout the game.

Joe Namath passed for two touchdowns—and then announced he'd be back next year—and Emerson Boozer ran for a pair as the Jets downed Cincinnati. Pete Liske fired for three touchdowns in Philadelphia's rout of the Giants.

Ken Houston intercepted two consecutive John Hadl passes and returned them 34 and 29 yards for third-quarter touchdowns as the Oilers rallied to beat San Diego. That gave the veteran safety man NFL records of nine interception touchdowns in a career and two in a game.

Duane Thomas exploded for four touchdowns Saturday in Dallas' triumph over St. Louis. He ran 53 yards and three yards twice and bolted 34 yards with a screen pass from Roger Staubach.

Peace Corps Faces Sharp Reduction

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Peace Corps faces a one-third reduction in its volunteer force and possible cancellation of programs in 15 nations because of congressional action.

In its last hour Friday, the Congress passed a continuing resolution that would give the Corps a budget of $72 million, $10 million below the administration request.

The continuing resolution was necessary because the Senate did not act on the appropriations bill passed by the House. Both Houses passed an authorization bill giving the corps $77.2 million, but the House appropriated only $68 million.

The corps hopes that when Congress reconvenes Jan. 18, the Senate will approve the full $77.2 million, and that a conference committee would accept that figure. It appears unlikely, however, that the House would approve the full amount.

In the meantime, the corps must make decisions based on the $72 million appropriation in the continuing resolution, which expires Feb. 22.

Affected by the low appropriation are some 600 highly specialized volunteers who were to be sent overseas. One informed source said they now "will be disinclined and the countries will be told they are not coming."

The volunteers included construction engineers and diesel mechanics who were to go to Africa for a road-building project, a forestry expert who also was to work in Africa and public administrators going to Latin America.

Also, the corps will not accept some 4,000 new trainees it expected to take on during the next six months.

Depending on the amount of money the corps receives when the Senate completes action on the appropriations bill, the corps could accept new trainees, but it also may have to cut

Impossible to Double Talk in Fgn. Language

NEW YORK (AP) — Trying to cope with the intricacies of modern double talk in a foreign language is almost impossible.

So we discovered on a recent trip to France when my husband lifted a suitcase, strained a muscle and wound up flat on his back in a small town called Chalon-sur-Saone.

Wracking my brain to recall my college French, I ventured to the hotel desk and explained my husband had hurt his back. Actually, I couldn't remember the word for hurt so it came out that he had wounded his back.

Encouraged by sympathetic nods, I asked if there was a doctor nearby who spoke English. A hurried consultation between the desk clerk and the manager and a quick telephone call resulted in the announcement that just such a doctor would arrive two hours hence.

Triumphant, I returned to the hotel room to reassure my husband, still unable to stand. Finally the doctor arrived, greeting us cordially—in French.

After two rounds of hellos, I ventured a timid question: "Vous parlez Anglais, oui?" "You speak English don't you?" "Non."—The answer was clear in any language.

How the mixup occurred, no one knew, but the situation was getting desperate, so I agreed to translate for my non French-speaking husband.

The only problem was: how do you explain where it hurts by 15 the number of countries in which it has programs. This would eliminate some 2,000 volunteers who could not be transferred.

The corps now has 8,000 volunteers and trainees in 55 countries.

One Peace Corps official said, "Officials were greatly distressed by the implications of the appropriation. Under any of the options open, the Peace Corps will be harmed."

Nat'l Guard Falls to Low Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — The strength of the Army National Guard has fallen to its lowest point in about six years, even as the guard is being assigned important new missions in the nation's contingency war plans.

Latest reports reaching the Pentagon from the 50 states indicate guard strength at the end of November had slipped to about 384,000 men.

This is about 16,000 men below its authorized manpower level of 400,000 and the smallest number in guard ranks since 1965 when young men began flocking to the National Guard in preference to being drafted for the Vietnam war.

The National Guard is mounting a major recruiting campaign, having trained several thousand new recruits to "go out and beat the bushes" for recruits, as one official put it.

But the steep decline in draft calls and Nixon administration's promises to try to end the draft in about 18 months is making it harder to attract young men into the guard.

The difficulties come at a time when Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has made it clear he expects the guard to fill a major front-line role in U.S. preparedness.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

Dear Folks:

I am thinking of you today because it is Christmas and I wish you happiness. And tomorrow I shall still wish you happiness. I may not be able to tell you about it every day, because I may be far away, or we may be very busy. But that makes no difference, my thoughts and my wishes will be with you just the same. Whatever joy or success comes to you will make me glad. Throughout the year - I wish you the Spirit of Christmas.

Dear Lord:

May you have the Spirit of Christmas which is Peace,
The Gladness of Christmas which is Hope,
The Heart of Christmas which is Love,

AMEN.

Activities at Beryl Henry School

Volunteer teacher's aides, Ms. Suellen Tate, Ms. Linda Young, Ms. Colleen Watson, showing off proudly their students art work, and Reading Readiness skills to Ms. Powell Whitmarsh, principal of Beryl Henry School. This enrichment program grew out of a Hope Junior Auxiliary Project begun by Ms. Merle Dickinson, grade school supervisor. The first two weeks of school, the Hope Chapter of NAJA kept classes for two hours every morning while all Hope School's first grade teachers tested their students individually. The purpose of the tests was to see what each child entering first grade needed to learn in order to read.

Mrs. Louise Fuller, a first grade teacher for 37 years, with her 1971 class and Ms. Betty Griffin, practice teacher from HSC.

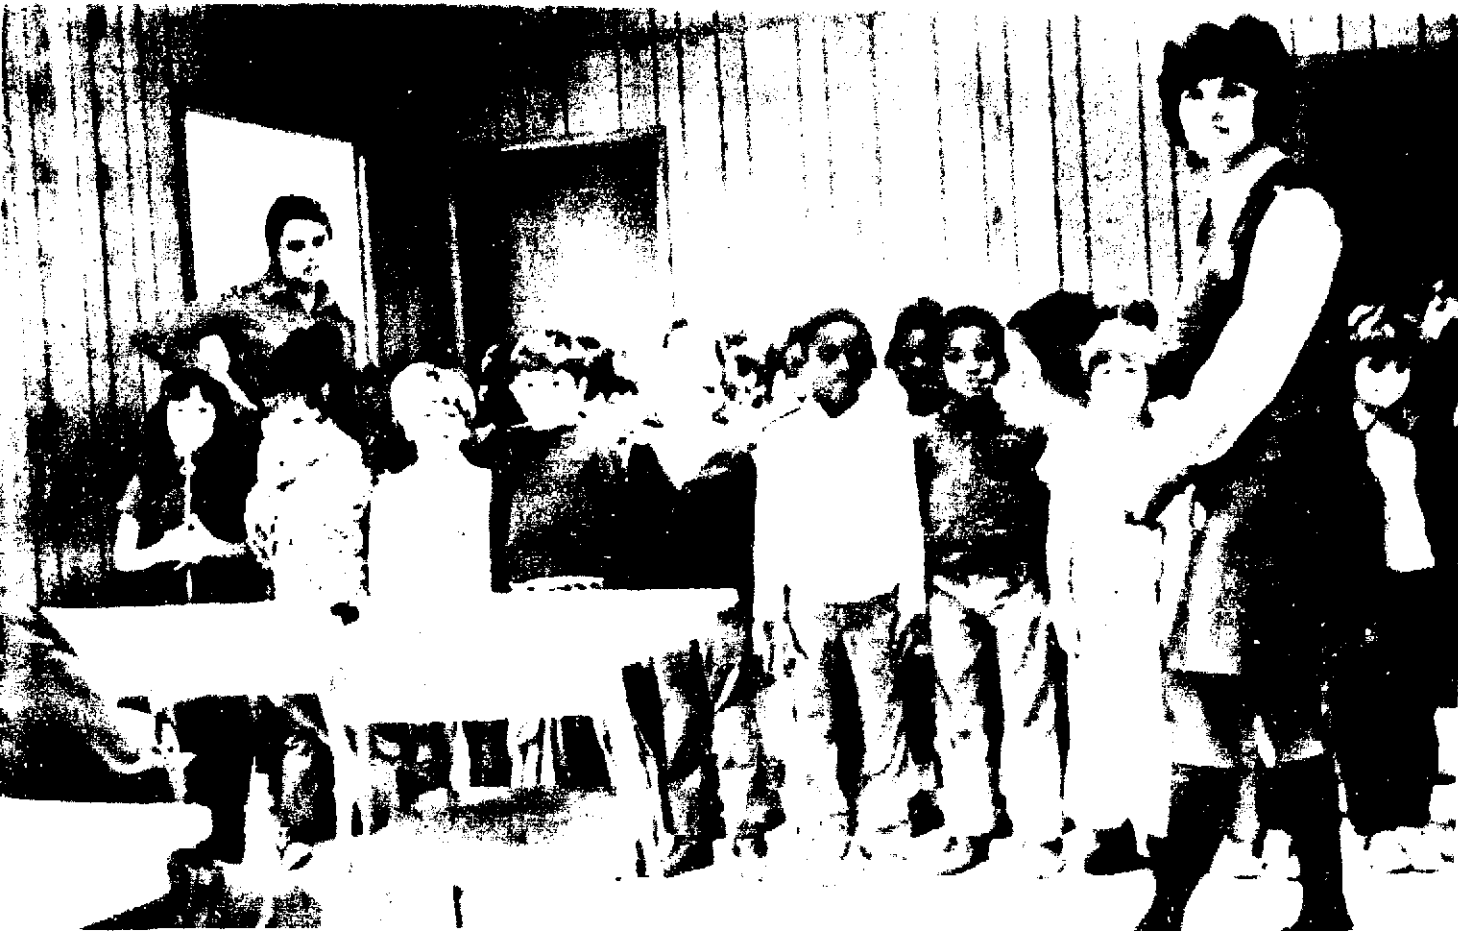

Mrs. Fuller not only taught both Ms. Griffin and Ms. Mary Gail Burgess when they were in the first grade, she also taught Ms. Griffin's husband, two sisters, and brother-in-law.

This is the final week for the two first grade practice teachers at Beryl Henry. They have been observing Ms. Fuller and Ms. Reynolds for nine weeks. Ms. Fuller and Ms. Reynolds must explain, instruct and evaluate teaching methods and finally report to HSC their qualifications for teaching.

The 66 students in the two first grades at Beryl Henry presented their parents a Christmas Program Dec. 15 in the lunch room.

Ms. Jeannie Reynolds, first grade teacher, and Ms. Mary Gail Burgess, practice teacher from HSC, preparing for their students' Christmas program.

Five Persons Killed on Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five persons were killed on Arkansas highways this past weekend.

The Associated Press fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday. Danny C. Miller, 23, of New Hope was killed late Sunday night when the car he was driving crashed on U.S. 70 about three miles west of Daisy (Pike County). Officers said the vehicle left the highway and struck a parked pickup truck.

Peter W. Albrecht, 22, of Elgin, Ill., died Sunday at a Memphis hospital of injuries received Saturday in a one-car crash about three miles north of Blytheville on Interstate 55. Officers said Albrecht was a passenger in a car driven by Jack L. Cobb, 19, also of Elgin. Authorities said the car skidded off the highway and struck a steel sign. Cobb and Raymond E. Sturgeon, 19, of West Helena, another passenger in the car, were hospitalized at Blytheville.

State Police said Clifford D. Spencer, 21, of Carlisle was killed early Sunday when his car crossed the center line and hit another car on Arkansas 33 about eight miles south of DeWalls Bluff.

Delmore J. Daniels, 19, of Poplar Grove (Phillips County) was killed Saturday night when he was struck by a car as he attempted to cross U.S. 49 at Poplar Grove.

Officers said Daniels was struck by a car driven by Luke Kirby, 41, of Poplar Grove. Kirby told police he did not see Daniels.

State Police said John W. Highfill, 58, of Creve Cour, Mo., was killed Friday night when the tractor-trailer rig he was driving crashed in to a bridge on U.S. 67 near Newport.

Butz Burst on Farm Scene

By DON KENDALL
AP Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has burst onto the 1972 political scene as the key downfield blocker in President Nixon's race through the farm belt.

Charges that the administration is against small farmers and for huge, corporate interests will be challenged with a bang, not a whimper. Butz, 62, says he's a fighter and likes to punch.

Moreover, Butz said in an interview, he will stump the farm belt on behalf of Republican candidates "on our team" in 1972.

Butz said he expects 1972 to be a lively scrap for the hearts and votes of rural America. An example of the fray ahead was signalled last Friday by Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, who told a National Farmers Organization audience Nixon "has turned his back" on farmers.

"Earl Butz stands for factory buying, which drives merchants out of business, small towns out of existence and families out of farming," Muskie told the NFO in Kansas City.

Butz, who had read a copy of the Muskie speech, said such claims were "totally wrong" and that farmers would be the judges of Nixon policies.

Butz says the opening gun of the 1972 political campaign in the farm belt was sounded during the stormy Senate debate over his nomination as successor to Clifford M. Hardin, Nixon's first secretary of agriculture.

During the debate, which ended with Butz being narrowly approved by the Senate on Dec. 2, the former Purdue University economist was chastised for past connections with agricultural business firms.

Butz said that while at Purdue he worked with farmers of every size and stripe: large and small, poor and well-to-do.

"And I also worked with those concerns that supply farmers with products they use in production and that process and merchandise their products," Butz added.

There is concern about low corn prices following the record 1971 crop. Butz admitted. But prices of most livestock are on the upswing, dairymen are in good shape and there are "many bright spots" in agriculture.

Baker, Berrigan Are Seeking Paroles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, the former U.S. Senate secretary who came to Washington as a page boy and left a millionaire, is seeking parole from a three-year federal prison sentence.

Baker, antiwar priest Daniel Berrigan and three other less well-known federal inmates take their pleas for early release to the U.S. Board of Parole today.

Berrigan, turned down in a parole bid last July, is seeking a rehearing on the basis of undisclosed new evidence in his case. No actual decision as to his release will be made at today's session.

The eight-member board takes up the cases in closed-door session with prisoners not on hand, but represented by lawyers.

The votes by which decisions are made are never made public.

Baker, who entered the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., 11 months ago, is eligible for parole from his one-to-three-years sentence on Jan. 13.

He was convicted in 1967 of larceny, income-tax evasion, fraud and conspiracy as a result of his dealings while Senate secretary and a protégé of former President Lyndon B. Johnson. Baker walked through the gates of Lewisburg Jan. 14, 1971, his appeals exhausted. Berrigan has been imprisoned in the Federal Correctional Institute at Danbury, Conn., since August of 1970.

He is serving a three-year sentence for destruction of draft records at Catonsville, Md., in 1968.

In Berrigan's case, the board received new evidence to determine whether a new hearing is justified. If at least two members of the board want it, a new hearing will be scheduled.

Cease-Fire in South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu tonight announced 24-hour cease-fires for allied forces in South Vietnam for Christmas, New Year's and the Tet celebration of the lunar new year in mid-February.

Thieu coupled his announcement with an appeal to the Communists on the occasion of Christmas to "end the fighting immediately and completely" throughout Indochina so that prompt and serious discussions could be held to restore peace.

The Viet Cong announced nearly three weeks ago that its forces would observe cease-fires of three days each for Christmas and New Year's and four days for Tet.

Heath-Nixon Plan to Aid War Victims

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

Associated Press Writer
HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath planned to urge President Nixon at their two-day meeting starting today to join in a crash program of international relief for the war-stricken millions of East Pakistan.

Authoritative sources said the British leader was certain American aid on a multimillion-dollar scale is essential for two reasons:

—With their food dwindling and their communications shattered the Bengalis need help directly.

—The United States must move fast to reverse the consequences of having backed the regime of President Agha Mohammad Yahya Khan.

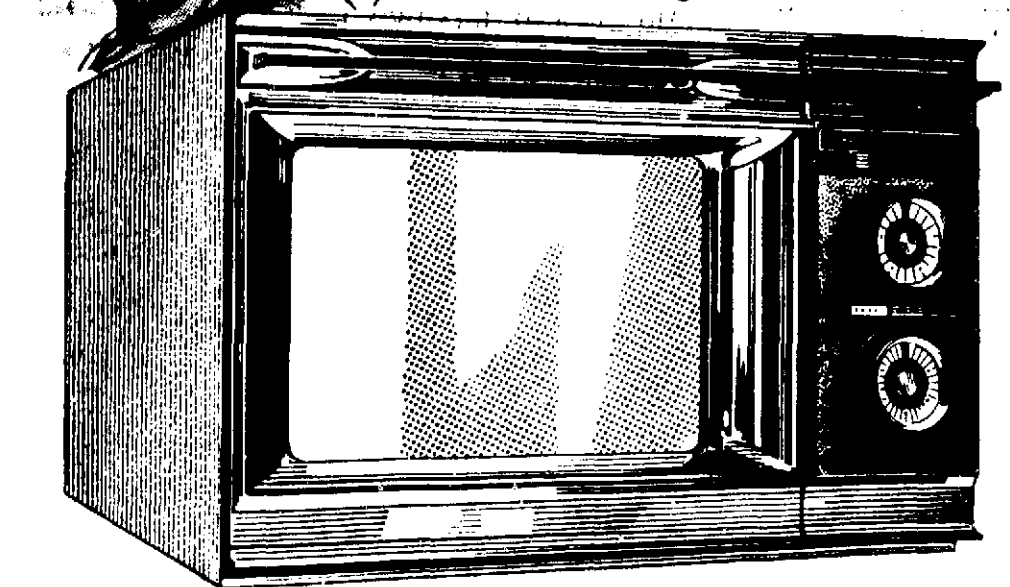

Heath is ready to pledge full British participation in an emergency program, a high-ranking British source reported. France, West Germany and other West European nations are expected to join in to reduce Indian reliance on the Soviet Union for relief.

Nixon's meeting with Heath is the third in a series he has arranged with allied leaders in advance of his journeys to Peking and Moscow.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "Let's start an argument. What would you lead against three no-trump with the West cards?"

Jim: "You won't get any argument from me. I open the five of diamonds. I assume the question refers to rubber bridge."

Oswald: "I didn't expect any argument from you, but I do expect some from duplicate players. In rubber bridge, West wants to attack in a suit that may give him a chance to set the contract. The heart lead is safe, but there isn't enough tricks in that suit if he does hit his partner."

Jim: "Duplicate is another story. The diamond lead may ride up to declarer's ace-queen. The heart lead is most unlikely to give declarer an extra heart trick."

Oswald: "This illustrates one of the differences between rubber bridge and match-point duplicate. The difference between three and four no-trump may mean a lot of match points. In rubber bridge, it means little."

Jim: "Looking at all the cards, we see that the diamond lead knocks out the ace of diamonds right away and South goes down two. Against a heart lead, he has time to set up the clubs and make an overtrick."

Oswald: "Well, you wouldn't want me to get you to commit yourself and then show a hand where you were wrong."

NOTICE OFFERING PUBLIC HEARING ON HIGHWAY LOCATION AND DESIGN
JOB 3750
FEDERAL AID PROJECT S-585 (2)
CROSS ROADS-WASHINGTON HEMPSTEAD COUNTY

All interested persons are advised that the construction of Highway 195 from Cross Roads to Washington in Hempstead County is being planned by the Arkansas State Highway Commission. The project begins at the junction of State Highways 73 and 195 at Cross Roads and extends north generally following the existing route to a point near the west city limits of Washington, a distance of approximately 3.46 miles. The proposed project generally consists of grading, minor drainage structures, stabilized base, bituminous surfacing, sealed shoulders, one bridge length box culvert and one bridge. Plans showing location and design of the proposed route and information relative to environmental studies are available for public inspection at the office of the District Engineer, Arkansas State Highway Department, 1515 West 3rd Street, Hope, Arkansas.

Any interested citizen in the vicinity of said route may request that a public hearing be held regarding such proposed location and design and the economic effect of such construction by submitting a written request to the District Engineer, Arkansas State Highway Department, P.O. Box 490, Hope, Arkansas 71801, on or before the 27th day of December, 1971.

In the event such request is received, a further notice of the date, time and place of the hearing will be published.

Let's Reflect

A man could retire nicely in his old age if he could dispose of his experience for what it cost him. Selected from Apples Of Gold.

Calendar Of Events

The annual union Christmas service will be held at the Bethel A.M.E. Church Saturday morning, December 25, at 7:00 o'clock. Rev. W.M. Martin, pastor of the Rising Star Baptist Church will preach. Music will be rendered by the choirs of Bethel, BeBee, Rising Star, Mt. Zion, Mt. Pleasant, and Garrett Chapel Churches.

The public is invited to attend. Rev. W.G. Wynn, Host Pastor.

Rev. E.A. Porchia will preach at the Mt. Pleasant C.M.E. Church December 25, at 2:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend. Rev. W.T. Keys, Pastor.

Obituary

Mrs. Linnie Cox, a native of Hempstead County, passed away in a local hospital Sunday night, December 19, 1971, after a lengthy illness.

She is survived by one, G.L. Cox of Hope, three sisters, Mrs. Hattie Shaw of Los Angeles, Mrs. Trudie Thompson of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Mrs. Pearl Williams of Hope, one brother, Hosea Jones of Chicago, four grandchildren, Richard Cox of San Jose, California, Mrs. Iris Mitchell of Compton, California, Mrs. Janice Horton of Kansas City, and Mrs. Juanita Edwards of San Diego, eight great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Mrs. Orsini joined the bank in May 1970. Prior to her appointment, she was in charge of the Customer Service Department at First National Bank in Little Rock. As Operations Officer, she is responsible for the Proof and Transit, Account Service, Purchasing, and Safe Deposit Departments. In addition, she has accountability for the Bank property and grounds. Mrs. Orsini has completed eleven American Institute of Banking courses and is a member of the National Association of Bank Women and the American Business Women's Association.

Wreck Victims Found in River

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The bodies of Carolyn Williams, 18, and Jessie Rawls, 26, both of Chidester, were found Sunday floating in back water from the Ouachita River at Tate's Bluff, about 25 miles upstream from Camden.

Officials said the two were among three persons who died the night of Dec. 10 when a pickup truck plunged off a water-covered bridge at Tate's Bluff. The body of Perry Williams, 36, of Chidester was found in the truck Dec. 13.

Lou Helen McIntyre of Chidester, a fourth occupant of the truck, said she spent 13 hours in a tree after the accident happened before reaching safety.

Fifty-five per cent of the Texas population falls in the 18 to 64 age bracket.

Home, Inc.

Author Credit, a longtime resident of Hope, passed away in a local hospital December 18, 1971.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Commemorative Stamp Folders Available

Hope, Arkansas has been selected by the United States Postal Service to make available to the public the 1971 commemorative stamp folders, marking the first time in history that such Mini-Albums have been distributed nation-wide through Post Offices. Postmaster A.D. Brannan said today.

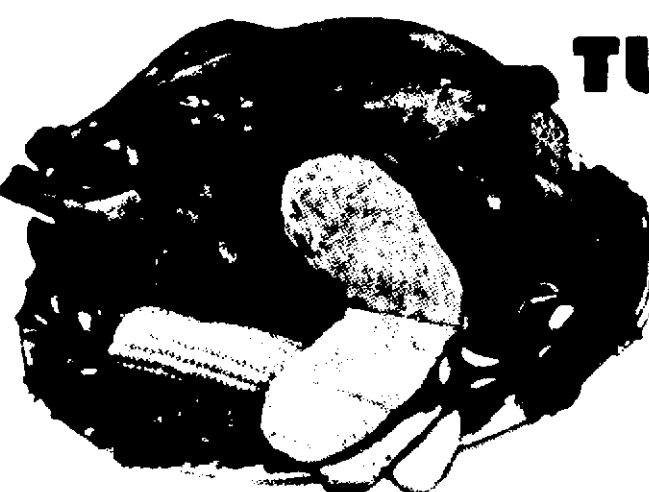

"We are pleased that we can make available these attractive Mini-Albums throughout our area," the Postmaster said.

Beginning Dec. 20, 1971, these starter kits will go on sale. The starter kits will be sold in Hope, Ark. and in the following communities at the Local Post Office: Fulton, Emmet, Rosston, Washington and Prescott, Ark.

The kits contain 24 commemorative stamps and a Mini-Album with a description of each. They are primarily designed to encourage stamp collecting by young persons and will cost $2.50.

"The stamp folders make it possible for young adults and collectors to purchase a full years issue of commemorative stamps at one time," Postmaster Brannan stated.

"It is contemplated," The Postmaster said, "That Mini-Albums will be made available annually."
